"The best way to cultivate love in your heart is to enshrine Jesus there for He is love and where He is love reigns".

From Heaven Christ sends down a blessing. He communicates His nature to us, and so we learn how we are to live and how we are to let Him live in us; and we see somewhat of what we might be if we had faith and hope and love to bear the weight of the glory.—H. Monsell.

Narrow Escape From Death.

B. M. Haile, Mrs. Atty. Shoulders, Mrs. R. A. Montgomery and little son, Martin Draper, Francis Wooten, Margaret Haile and Anna Joe Meadows had a close call for their lives Monday afternoon, when the car in which they were riding plunged down the Roaring river bluff and turned bottom side up. Mr.
Haile, who was driving the car, was caught under the steering wheel and was in a semi-conscious condition when rescued a few minutes later, but escaped injury. Mrs. Shoulders was slightly cut on the hand, while Mrs. Montgomery and son escaped with a few scratches. The little Meadows girl sustained minor bruises and cuts. Misses Haile and Wooten escaped injury by jumping from the car as it went over the bluff.

The accident occurred when Mr. Haile attempted to pass a wagon in a narrow place in the road. He applied the emergency brake as the car started over, which probably saved their lives.
The damage to the car is estimated to about $85.00.

A tolerably well informed man was looking over the latest edition of "Who's Who" the other day and remarked that he was surprised at some of the names listed in the book and surprised because some others were not listed.

This reminds us of the remark of an old minister who said he suspected that he would be surprised when he got to heaven to find some people there and surprised as well to find that some others were not there.

Every now and then we are surprised to learn of the financial strength of some people and the financial weakness of some other.
Some of those whom we have thought to be hare up turn out to be well fixed, while some others who have been making a big display prove to be on the verge of bankruptcy.

The truth is that we cannot always tell just who is who.

Aeroplane Returned.

Mr. Irwin with his aeroplane, which thrilled the people here
July 23rd, paid us another visit Monday. He arrived about 9:40 o'clock a. m., and remained till Tuesday morning, making several glights over the town during the day, carrying a passenger each trip. Those taking a joy ride over the city were: Mrs. R. C.
Gaw, Mrs. T. R. Roddy, Garret
Johnson, Jess Young, Luke Dennis, J. M. Draper, Harry Page
Chas. Brown, Bayless Anderson and John McCawley.

All were satisfied with just smooth riding, except Mr. Mc-Cawley, who wanted something out of the ordinary, called for a loop-the-loop stunt, which was granted. So n w, John has a little more to talk about than the follow who took the ordinary ride.
From what John says, about it its worth the price.

niece, Miss Grace Hall, returned

TALK ABOUT dime novels.

THEY SENT Jim down.

TO TEXAS to investigate.

SOME OIL wells there.

WHICH THEY might buy.

IF JIM said O.K.

AND HE was to report.

BY WIRE in secret code.

NOW—ENTER the villain.

A SLIPPERY crook.

GOT WIND of it.

AND TRAILED Jim down.

COPIED OFF his code.

AND BRIBED a boob.

IN THE telegraph branch.

SO THE crook could get.

THE EARLIEST word.

AND CORNER stock.

AND WORK a hold-up.

IT LOOKED like easy coin.

BUT JIM got wise.

AND THREW away his code.

AND WHEN he sent.

THE FINAL dope.

HE FOILED the villain.

THE MESSAGE just said.

"CHESTERFIELD."

AND HIS directors knew.

THAT ALL was well.

WITH THOSE oil wells.

FOR OIL men know.

THAT "CHESTERFIELD" means.

"THEY SATISFY."

YOU'LL know you've "struck

it rich" when you discover Chesterfields. You'll say "they satisfy." A wonderful blend—the pick of Turkish and Do-why "they satisfy." And the Chesterfield blend can not be
